Free Shipping Made Easy

April 30, 2008 at 8:14AM by Ayren Jackson-Cannady

I get anxious going through checkout at a real store when I have to calculate how much all of the stuff is really going to cost after tax is included. But my nervousness is even greater when I'm shopping online and the cost of shipping has to be included, too.

There is a new-ish website I just learned about called Freeshippingon.com that searches only for items with free shipping from some of the most popular online retailers – Amazon, eBay, Office Max, Apple, Best Buy, Circuit City, Wal-Mart.

Try it out and tell me how it worked for you.
